Présentation du festival :

The Edinburgh International Film Festival devotes itself to discovering and promoting the very best in international cinema - and to embracing, celebrating and debating changes and developments in the global film industry.

It presents its diverse and discerning audience with an enlightening programme of films of all shapes and sizes, drawn from every corner of the earth and from every facet of the artistic imagination.

Key to the EIFF mission is the identification, exposure and development of the filmmaking legends of the future.

Filmmaker guests are integral - as is the participation of the audience, through our discussion events and onstage interviews.

Intimate in its scale, ambitious in its scope, and fuelled by pure passion for cinema in all its manifestations, EIFF seeks to expose the cutting edge of new film talent, in a setting steeped in history.

Newly positioned in a June slot, EIFF will have an unprecedented opportunity to assert its status among the world's leading film events and the UK's most significant and valued cultural institutions.

Information pour le long-métrage

The Melbourne International Film Festival, established in 1952, is Australia's largest & longest running film festival, and one of the most prestigious in the Asia Pacific region. During the 17-day event we present a showcase of the best in contemporary international cinema as well as a selection of thematically-curated and retrospective programs. In 2008 the Festival screened 400 features, documentaries and short films from almost 50 countries to an enthusiastic audience of over 180,000. Our regular sections include International Panorama, Homegrown, Next Gen, Neighbourhood Watch, Documentaries, Animation Gallery, Night Shift and Backbeat, and specialist sections included Border Patrol, Forbidden Pleasures, Tribute to 40 Years of Cannes' Directors Fortnight, Tributes to George A. Romero and Edward Yang and Romanian Wave. Since 2007 the Festival has incorporated titles from the MIFF Premiere Fund, which offers funding for local features and documentaries. The Festival also maintains strong links with local and international industry and is the only Australian festival to feature an attached market, in the form of 37South: Bridging the Gap.
